

THE FRANK OWENS HARDWARE COMPANY

Are Pleased to announce the arrival of two car-loads of American Field Fence. Orders can now be filled promptly. "Fall in!"

The Souls of Flowers

Mingle in happy union in the exquisite perfumes we carry. Scents are as difficult to blend into harmony as sounds. It takes almost as high an order of ability to make true perfumes as is required to write good music.

No wonder so much of the perfume offered is rank, flat and unsatisfactory. If not wholly pleased with the odors you are now using, we would like to have you try some of the delightful ones we handle. Cost you no more than the poorer kinds.

Thos. J. Chenoweth,
DRUGGIST,

Cor. Second and Sutton Sts., Maysville, Ky.

Dover Lodge K. of P., No. 129, has elected officers, as follows:
C. C.—D. P. Wilson.
V. C.—J. Elgin Anderson.
P.—Walter Wilson.
M. of W.—L. T. Fox.
M. at A.—Austin Smith.
I. G.—Charles Stairs.
O. G.—R. J. Adams.

Former Representative Price, of Fleming, has entered the race for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of that county. There are twenty candidates in the field.

Reserved seat tickets for the commencement of Miss Gordon's school will be on sale Monday at Nelson's. Admission 15 cents.

Sealed bids for the various privileges at the Maysville Elk's Fair will be opened Monday, June 8th. Send bids to H. L. Hamilton, Secretary.

Jasper Sharp, of Bracken County, serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for murder, was paroled Wednesday. He has been a model prisoner.

Portsmouth Blade: "Miss Florence P. Wadsworth, of Maysville, began her engagement at the Second Presbyterian Church Sunday, singing at both the morning and evening services. She is a beautiful singer, and her splendid voice will add much to the excellent music of this church."

Mr. C. B. Clift has filed suit at Cincinnati against the Union Savings Bank and Trust Company for $10,000 damages. Mr. Clift alleges he asked to be let off the elevator at the tenth floor of the company's building May 22nd, and as he started out the cab suddenly shot upward, and he was thrown to the marble floor. Both bones of his forearm were broken, and he was badly bruised.

Suit has been filed at Louisville to set aside the will of Mrs. Catherine H. Wilson, who left about $60,000 to the Methodist churches and charities in Kentucky. P. B. Waters, E. P. Barlow Mary E. Rhoades, W. H. Barlow and Loula Barlow, cousins, of Barren County, are the contestants. Suit was also brought to set aside the adoption of Catherine Wilson Kent Diegler, who is one of the principal heirs. The estate is worth about $125,000.

At the First Methodist Church, South, on next Sunday will be "Children's Day." Rev. Dr. Evans, the pastor, will preach to the children at 10:30 a. m. on "A Gentleman's Watch." At 3 p. m., the exercises will be by the children. At both services a large audience of children is expected, tho' every one is invited, and the services will be entertaining to all classes and ages. Epworth League devotional meeting at 6:30 p. m. Seats are all free.

NOT LIKE GASOLINE

When you come to think of it, starting the fires is a mighty delicate and dangerous operation at best. There is absolutely [No. 250]

No Danger With Gas Fuel,

because a gas range is so simple in its operation and handling that a child can start the fire. JUST ONE MATCH, that's the fuel it takes to do the work—no coal to drag in, no ashes to carry out. Costs less than coal and not half the bother. BUY A GOOD GAS RANGE and you'll never go back to coal! SEE THE GAS CO. and sample range at Langfells & Co.'s, Market street. "Detroit Jewel Gas Ranges make low gas bills."
